

College equipment is not to be loaned, borrowed, or rented. Its primary purpose and use is in the support of student's instructional programs. However, certain exceptions may be granted from time to time, upon recommendation of the appropriate vice president or dean. A fee may be charged in such instances. See Administrative Process Manual AP8050.