3. Public comment

There was no public comment.

4. Consent Agenda

Motion 23-38 Trustee Anna Franz moved to approve the consent agenda. Trustee Bethany Martinez seconded and the motion passed.

5. Faculty Updates

Faculty Association President Tyler Wallace shared news from faculty.

Michele Reeves, Early Childhood Education Instructor was asked to present at two national conferences in partnership with EWU and local education leaders about our partnership pathways for Elementary Education teachers. She was unable to attend either conference due to conflicts with Early Learning Teacher Preparation Council with the State, but she did contribute to the presentations being made by this group. The first conference was in California at TED - Teacher Education Division of the Council for Exceptional Children. The second was in Minnesota at DEC – Division for Early Childhood of the Council for Exceptional Children.

Kaja Englund, Criminal Justice Instructor shared activities from two classes. In her online CJ& 209 Police Psychology course, students are currently working on watching a video interview of Corporal Lopez from Moses Lake Police Department. The purpose of this interview was to help students connect what they are reading in their textbook and learning in class to "real life" experiences expressed by Cpl. Lopez. The interview questions prompted Cpl. Lopez to share about his psychology related experiences and training on the job as a police officer.

In her CJ& 101 Intro to Criminal Justice course while students were learning about reasonable suspicion and probable cause, she had a student arrest her in class (and yes, with real police handcuffs). What better way to have students see and understand the process of reasonable suspicion, major sources that provide probable cause, search and seizures, stop and frisks, and arrests than doing a role place scenario. The particular scenario in which she was arrested started with her putting up a news flash for a person who was wanted for robbery on the screen. The description of this wanted individual was an exact description of Kaja. She assigned an "officer" student to the case who, with the help of his backup crew (being the rest of the class) worked through the questioning, searches, and framework of then making an arrest.

Melissa Heaps, Basic Skills Instructor reports that students in BEdA have had an exciting November! It started with a visit to the aviation department, where Cade Levine gave WA State History students a tour of a 727 and taught them about career options as flight mechanics. Mitch Poth from the Communications Department stopped by the BEdA US History class to discuss what makes a good political speech. Finally, students learned about the history of irrigation and agriculture in the Columbia Basin with a visit to Jonathan Hartman's greenhouse in the WEC building.

Rhonda Kitchens, Faculty librarian and Library Science Instructor hosted another round of the Passion Project series. This quarter featured Lindsay Groce and her tails of all she learned as she traveled England and Europe on her sabbatical. Before the event attendees were invited to make their own fascinators to wear for the tea and presentation as we were all transported to England for a discussion about the history of science. In addition, Rhonda wishes to invite everyone to stop by the Library to visit the poets table and write a Haiku at this annual event.

Aviation Maintenance Technology Instructor Chris Dinges is a graduate of the Big Bend program and formerly worked for MedStar/Life. He is in his third year of the tenure review process and Big Bend's AMT program is ranked sixth out of 175 schools.

6. Student Leadership

Mechatronic Club members showed a mechatronics project mini farm bot performing. Instructor and IST Advisor Justin Henley introduced the Club Officers. Forty students are in the club with around eleven active members.

7. ASB Updates

ASB President Ty Tait provided a report about ASB activities. Clubs need to attend one ASB meeting per month to encourage networking and funding justification. The Mechatronics Club offered to make t-shirts for other students. ASB coordinated a disability awareness speaker and food events. ASB and clubs have been active with a Dia de los Muertos celebration and food and destress events. There are more student activities planned for winter and spring quarters.

8. President's Update

Dr. Tweedy highlighted new employees and employees who have been promoted as well as open positions. She shared winter Student enrollment, which continues to increase. Dr. Tweedy answered the bookstore budget question from the last meeting. We don't have a bookstore therefore no bookstore budget; we communicate with Barnes and Noble who operate our bookstore services.

Dr. Tweedy announced we are an ASPEN Top 150 college and in the top 15% of community and technical colleges in the nation. The Top award is $1 million and similar to the Oscars for community colleges. Six critical areas are evaluated to choose the top colleges: teaching and learning, certificate and degree completion, transfer and bachelor's attainment, workforce success, access, and equity for students of color and students from low-income backgrounds.

Additional information will be submitted to the Aspen Institute and we hope to earn a spot in the top 25 schools.

Dr. Tweedy reported she will meet with legislators in January, February, and April with a focus on raising awareness about dual enrollment, it's funding, and the pipeline from Big Bend into industry. Graduating students from high school with post-secondary credentials help our students and industries. College in the High School helps students collect credits that may not all transfer to Universities.

The Big Bend Community College Foundation held a successful Family Campaign and achieved their stretch goal of $45,000, above the original goal of $42,000.

Board Chair Gary Chandler announced a 15-minute exec session at 2:40 p.m. to discuss items provided for in RCW 42.30.110 (1): (g) to evaluate the qualifications of an applicant for public employment or to review the performance of a public employee. The meeting reconvened at 2:55 p.m. No actions were taken during the executive session.

Winter 2024 classes started on January 2, 2024. As of January 22 (start of week 4), winter headcount was 347 higher than this time last winter. Total and state-funded FTEs were up 24% as well. This is largely due to the increase in Basic Education for Adults (BEdA) enrollments, which have more than doubled since last year. Both Transfer FTE (up 3.3%) and Workforce Ed FTE (up 10.1%) have increased from last year, although at a slower rate.

Fall quarter ended on December 6, 2023, with enrollments higher than they were in the past three years. Total headcount was up 11.5%, total FTEs were up 18.5%, and statefunded FTEs were up 18.2% from fall 2022. The largest increase in enrollment was seen in BEdA programs. The final fall enrollment report is attached for review.

The tuition amount budgeted for 2023-2024 is $3,500,000. As of December 31, 2023 we have collected $2,578,064 or 73.7% of the budgeted amount. As of December 31, 2022 we had collected $2,351,585 or 61.9%.

Making Dual Enrollment Equitable for ALL students in Washington

PROBLEM:

Running Start is a great opportunity for students however, not all of the students in our rural service district have access to it. Barriers such as transportation and location prevent a great many students from being able to participate. Our local employers need skilled workers — meaning skills past a high school diploma. 60% of students in BBCC's service district are not enrolling in college the year after graduating and the majority of graduates in the BBCC service district do not complete a postsecondary credential within eight years of graduating high school. This is why we need more robust College in the High School and CTE Dual Enrollment programs that gives our students an equitable opportunity to earn postsecondary credentials and certificates while in high school.

CURRENT ISSUES

- Current dual enrollment challenges include: Offerings that don't add up to credentials; multiple offerings from multiple institutions have students chasing multiple transcripts. Credits earned don't produce credentials and are not always transferable.
- Large rural service district with students living in poverty without easy access to postsecondary education (no transportation, not offered locally).
- Students are opting out of a college education because their immediate need for income outweighs their ability to pursue a postsecondary degree. They may also not be aware of all educational options that are available in lieu of a 4-year degree.

SOLUTIONS:

LOCAL FOCUS

■ Bring higher education into the communities of students & adults to remove barriers of transportation issues of access.

- Provide ALL high school students with the opportunity to complete a postsecondary credential OR a coherent block of classes that help them move towards a credential that will benefit them in earning a living wage as well as support local business and industry by providing an educated workforce.
- The answer lies with Community & Technical Colleges because:
  - CTCs are most closely connected with school districts and local employers.
  - Most high school graduates in rural areas are likely to attend CTCs rather than move away from home to attend a four-year college or university.
  - Most high school graduates are not going to pursue bachelor degrees, but would pursue a certificate or 2-year degree especially if it started while in high school.
  - Individuals that have stopped out of high school are more likely to re-engage with education though a Community and Technical College.

- Base funding for each college to have a Dual Enrollment Coordinator.
- Incentives/pilot program for school districts to engage closely with colleges.
- Incentives for collaboration between high school counselors, teachers and administration and college administration, faculty, and outreach and support staff.

2023 Big Bend Highlights

- The Aspen Institute named Big Bend Community College as one of the Top 150 institutions eligible to compete for the $1 million Aspen Prize for Community College Excellence, the nation's signature recognition of high achievement and performance among two-year colleges. The institutions selected for this honor stand out among more than 1,000 community colleges nationwide as having high and improving levels of student success as well as equitable outcomes for Black and Hispanic students and those from lower-income backgrounds. The Aspen Prize spotlights exemplary community colleges in order to drive attention to colleges achieving post-graduate success for all students, and is a central way Aspen researches highly effective student success strategies that are shared with the field.
- Fall enrollment at BBCC saw an increase of 11.5% in total headcount and 18% in in full-time enrolled students compared with enrollment numbers for Fall 2023. For the Winter 2024 quarter (not finalized yet) Big Bend is seeing an increase of 18% in total headcount and 24% in full-time enrolled students as compared with enrollment numbers for Winter 2023.
- The Basic Education for Adults (BEdA) department at Big Bend has seen exponetial growth in 2023. BEdA programs have grown by 100% this year serving more than 125 new students. The growth has justified hiring new faculty in outlying areas of the college's service district and expansion into two new communities.
- Big Bend's first cohort of its Bachelor of Applied Science in Applied Management (BAS-AM) program graduated last spring with 25 students receiving the college's first ever conferred bachelor's degrees. Students began their journey fall 2022 after conversations between local industry and BBCC showed a need for workers with more extensive management training. The custom program was created to meet the demand, and 87% of participants graduated within two years. Students will gain the knowledge and skills necessary to enter and advance in management or supervisory positions or start their own business. Classes can be taken 100% online, perfect for working adults who need more flexibility in their schedules and have a job and/or family responsibilities. The program has been so successful a second cohort has been added doubling the amount students enrolled in the BAS-AM program.
- Big Bend Community College's Workforce Education Services (WES) was recently awarded the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities 2023 Beacon Award for Excellence in Student Achievement and Success. The annual award recognizes innovative approaches made by institutions that have significantly contributed to measurable improvements in completion and/or graduation rates. The college was formally recognized at the NWCCU Annual Conference Awards Luncheon in November. In addition to the award, WES also received a $2,500 check to be used to support their ongoing work.
- Big Bend Community College has been working hard to remove transportation barriers for prospective students who live in smaller, rural cities on the borders of the BBCC service area. English Language Aquisition (ELA), GED®, and high school completion classes are being offered in new physical spaces in towns like Mattawa, Othello, Warden, Quincy, and Royal City in partnership with local governments and school districts.
- New program: The High School Equivalency Program (HEP) serves migrant/seasonal farmworkers (MSFWs), including their spouse and dependents, with supplemental support and resources in an effort to assist them with earning their GED® or high school diploma. BBCC enrolled 47 new students into this program fall 2023.
- In 2023, Big Bend and its community partners hosted the 30th Annual Job and Career Fair. The event is the largest of its kind in the college's service district routinely bringing 80-plus potential employers and roughly 1500 potential employees together under one roof. Participants are exposed to companies hiring in the area and also the educational opportunities and training that Big Bend provides that could lead to future employment.

ITEM #10: Transforming Lives Event (information/action)

BACKGROUND:

Beginning in 2012, the WA Association of College Trustees (ACT) Awards Committee started the Transforming Lives program to highlight the crucial roles that community and technical colleges play in the lives of their students. The program recognizes students that, with the help of their schools, are able to overcome hardship to further their education and improve the quality of life for themselves and their families. Five nominees are chosen from across the state to speak at the annual dinner during the ACT Winter Conference in Olympia and each receives a $500 check.

The Big Bend Community College Board of Trustees wanted to extend this program on the local level in 2014 and began recognizing multiple students during a local Transforming Lives event each year. Each of the nominees are presented with a $100 check and along with their families are invited to a special awards dinner on campus. This event is funded by the Board's Foundation account and sponsorship garnered by the Trustees.
