

In accordance with RCW 28B.15.605, the Big Bend Community College Board of Trustees has established a refund policy. Enrolled students who officially withdraw will receive a refund of tuition and fees according to the schedule in Administrative Process 6110.

Financial aid recipients who withdraw are subject to the Return to Title IV aid regulations and the State of Washington regulations depending upon the type of financial aid they received. Institutional refunds will be used to repay any financial aid funds the student owes as a result of withdrawing.
