

HIRING: Independent Contractor - Creative Kids

Position Based in Royal City and Mattawa, Washington. Outreach, connection to educational services, services coordination and referral, direct service delivery, and ensuring services access for residents living at Catholic Charities Housing Services Housing Sites. Establish Rapport with parents and caregivers of children ages 0 to 5 to encourage and support their participation in Early Learning educational activities including Creative Kids Play and Learn Groups. Also, opportunity to be available for coverage for Creative Kids Play Groups in Quincy and George, Washington.

Responsibilities:

- Works directly on site with residents living at CCHS properties, other housing staff and Catholic Charities staff in the delivery and coordination of Creative Kids Play and Learn Programming- home visiting and help in facilitating of play groups at sites.
- Informal Case Management, developing partnerships with local service providers, client referrals to services providers, connection and community building.
- Establish and maintain positive working relationships with on-site managers to ensure access to community rooms and classrooms play group activities.
- Engage with families and develop trust and offer home visiting and an opportunity to attend fun and engaging Early Learning programs and activities.

Job Requirements:

If you have experience or specific education working with children and families, and if you're interested in working with families in their living environments, engaging in family home visits and facilitating play groups this is the job for you!

English Spanish Required

For a complete job description and to apply, visit our website at www.catholiccharitiescw.org or scan the QR code with your smartphone camera:

Call Sandra Aguilar at 509.972.2907 or email sanguilar@catholiccharitiescw.org for more information

