Washington State Residency Status

Washington's residency laws ask that students be defined as either financially independent of parents or financially dependent upon parents.

For financially dependent students to be classified as a resident, parent(s) or legal guardian(s) must claim the student as a dependent and be a resident of the state for at least one year before the quarter for which the student wishes to enroll.

Students who are financially independent must establish a permanent residence in Washington for at least 12 consecutive months before the quarter of application, establish all ties with Washington upon moving here (obtain Washington driver's license, register to vote, license vehicle), be financially independent of parents for current and previous year, and cannot be claimed as a dependent.

1. Have you lived in the state of Washington continuously for the past twelve months? Yes No
2. How long have you lived continuously in the state of Washington? ____ Years ____ Months
3. For the last calendar year, did your mother, father, or legal guardian claim you as a dependent on their federal income tax return? Yes No
4. For the current calendar year, will your mother, father, or legal guardian claim you as a dependent on their federal income tax return? If yes, please answer questions 5 and 6. If no, skip to question 7. Yes No
5. If you were claimed, or you will be claimed, as a dependent on a federal income tax return, has your mother, father, or legal guardian lived in the state of Washington continuously for the past twelve months? Yes No
6. How long has your mother, father, or legal guardian lived continuously in the state of Washington? ____ Years ____ Months
7. Will you be receiving financial assistance from a non-federal agency other than the State of Washington (for example, Alaska student loan or tribal funds)? If yes, explain: _____ Yes No
8. Are you current or former active duty military? Yes No
